AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION TO MEET IN NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Special to the Monitor:

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 30.—Several prominent speakers will be on the program of the mass meeting of the American Cotton Association in New Orleans, Louisiana, September 8 and 9. A number of acceptances to invitations have already been received by President J. Skottowe Wannamaker and others are certain. It is definitely announced addresses will be delivered by the following: Gov. Ruffin D. Pleasant of Louisiana; Hon. Martin Behrman, Mayor of New Orleans; Hon. John M. Parker of New Orleans, former United States Food Administrator; Col. W. B. Thompson, New Orleans; Hon. Harvie Jordan, Monticello, Georgia; Hon. J. Thos. Heflin, Congressman from Alabama; Hon. Hoke Smith, United States Senator from Georgia. Hon. John Sharpe Williams of Mississippi announces that he will be among the speakers provided he is not detained in Washington on those dates because of the sessions of Congress. Senator E. D. Smith of South Carolina has accepted tentatively to be governed largely by the status of legislative matters at the national capitol. Hon. P. P. Claxton, of Washington, United States Commissioner of Education, is endeavoring to arrange his affairs so he can be among the speakers. The principal address in behalf of the American Cotton Association will be delivered by Mr. Wannamaker.

Southern governors who recently endorsed this meeting in a joint proclamation which set forth the necessity of calling the conference to discuss general economic conditions and to recommend a minimum price for cotton, have been requested to appoint delegates at large from their various states and also name delegates representing each of their counties. Heads of State Farmers Unions, agricultural departments, superintendents of education, presidents of bankers associations, chairmen of State Chambers of Commerce, and other leading professional and business men have been requested to designate delegates in a similar manner. A large attendance is assured and it is announced that the New Orleans Committee on local arrangements is preparing for one of the largest meetings of this kind ever held in the South.

The American Cotton Association, organized in the interest of the cotton producers and the general business interests of the South, is declared to be meeting with gratifying results in its membership campaign. One of the purposes in calling the New Orleans meeting is to present its advantages to large numbers of representatives from all the cotton states and to study and discuss with them the unusual situation confronting the people at this time. After a careful analysis of prevailing business conditions and possibilities of the future, conservative methods will be outlined as to the best manner of procedure for the citizens of the South.

Determination and recommendation of a minimum price at which cotton should be sold by the growers, to prevent further losses, will be reached after the consideration of authentic data and receiving the advice of men of much business experience, both on the farm and in general commercial circles.

Additional governors have signed the joint proclamation since the first announcement of this mass meeting and at this time the signatures of the following state chief executives are on the document: Governor Kilby of Alabama; Governor Brough of Arkansas; Governor Catts of Florida; Governor Dorsey of Georgia; Governor Bickett of North Carolina; Governor Cooper of South Carolina; Governor Pleasant of Louisiana; Governor Roberts of Tennessee and Governor Hobbs of Texas.

ALL WEST KEEN FOR ZIONIST CONVENTION.

Thousand of Visitors Coming in Chartered Cars to Witness Deliberations of Twenty-Second Annual Convention of Zionist Organization of America Opening in Chicago September Twelfth.

Fixing the location of the Twenty-Second Annual Convention of the Zionist Organization of America in Chicago has resulted in stirring the Jewish communities of the Middle West a keen desire to witness the deliberations of what may prove to be one of the most historic gatherings of the devotees of the aspiration to establish a Jewish National Homeland in Palestine. The committee of arrangements states that it has received advices which indicate that when the formal sessions of the Convention begin on Sunday afternoon, September 14th, in the Auditorium Theatre, the galleries will be filled with thousands of spectators who will have come as far west as Denver, whole parties traveling in specially chartered cars.

The delegates to the convention will begin to arrive in on the twelfth. It is anticipated that the number of delegates actually attending will be at least one thousand and this figure may be exceeded. The actual number of delegates whose elections have been reported to the National Headquarters in New York being 1348. The formal opening will be made by Governor Frank O. Lowden and Mayor William Hale Thompson. United States Justice Louis D. Brandeis, who is returning from Palestine will attend. Direct messages from the future Jewish Homeland will be delivered by Dr. Harry Friedenwald, who served as the head of the Zionist Administrative Commission in Palestine, Robert Szold, a member of the Commission, Bernard A. Rosenblatt, head of the Zion Commonwealth, and Jacob de Haas who accompanied Mr. Brandeis on his visit to Palestine. Important tidings will also be brought to the convention by Judge Julian W. Mack, president of the Zionist Organization of America, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, vice president, Bernard Flexner of Chicago and Felix Frankfurter, who were all members of the Zionist delegation to the Versailles Conference.

The aim of the Local Committee of Arrangements is to give the Convention the dignified tone which the crucial moment demands and every care is being taken to avoid the merely spectacular. Mass meetings will be held in all the synagogues on Saturday morning and afternoon. A great celebration is scheduled to take place at the Auditorium Theatre on Wednesday evening, September 17th, and on Sunday evening there will be a great Hebrew Demonstration at the Chicago Hebrew Institute.

Arrangements have been made for the registration of delegates in the Great Rotunda of the Auditorium beginning Friday, September 12th, and on Saturday night the delegates will be the guests of the local committee at a reception in the First Regiment Armory. The main headquarters of the convention will be at the Congress Hotel.

MIZRACHI ORGANIZATION IN SOUTH AFRICA.

The Orthodox Jews of South Africa have recently organized a Mizrahi League. The League includes most of the wealthy and influential Jews of the city of Cape Town and vicinity. It has not only served to organize orthodox Jewry of the Cape Town community, but also hopes to bring under its wing the Orthodox Jews of entire South Africa. The well known Rabbi Moses Chaim Mirvish, an important figure in the life of South African Jewry, is the director and guiding spirit of the Mizrahi League.

MIZRACHI LEADER ELECTED TO POLISH PARLIAMENT.

A report to the Mizrahi Organization of America states that the famous leader of the Polish Mizrahi, Mr. Farbstain has been elected as delegate to the Polish Parliament from Bialistok. His opponent was the general Zionist Organization party candidate. The election was hotly contested by both sides but Mr. Farbstain, the Mizrahi candidate was elected by a large majority.
